

KITCHEN

Led by Ivan Brehm, Appetite brings together an R&D kitchen, record bar, and art gallery to create a new kind of community across boundaries. We describe our approach as crossroads thinking, investigating and reinterpreting moments of connection between cultures around the world.

Our current exhibition, Table Manners, brings together practices which take food as a lens to investigate wider interconnected systems, like globalisation, migration, environments, and more. We focus in on the Southeast Asian region to observe the manner – or the means, modes, and systems – by which food culture is carried out, enacted, and practised.

Our Kitchen is a centre for culinary research as well as an intimate and experimental dining experience. We serve an omakase menu that draws on a deep study of global food traditions and our love of improvisation.
