Sparklings of the World

Happy Birthday! Congratulations! Bonne Appetite!

To celebrate their steps into the unknown world, pagan explorers anointed themselves with a blessed liquid – blood, booze, or brandy. Recognizing that you could christen a ship without a priest, the Royal Courts of Europe chose the ‘holy water’ of champagne as it visually overflowed with abundance, joy, and grandeur.

From religious ritual to today, sparkling wines continue to mark new beginnings for all. L’chaim!

Sauvignon Blanc

Hidden amongst the sprawling grapevines of 16th century France, Sauvignon Blanc grapes were named after the 'Sauvage', or 'wild' grapevines with similar leaf shapes. Outstanding examples from the Loire were characterized by aromatic depth, citrus-forward freshness, and crisp acidity.

Chardonnay

The Helen of Troy of white wines - plenty have tried but none yet own the origins of Chardonnay. Top contenders include the 17th century village of Chardonnay in Saône-et-Loire, Cistercian monks in northern Burgundy, and Chardenay; a village in south Burgundy where Thistle (also known as Cardonacum) grows.

Riesling

Rieslings are deeply rooted in Bavarian and Germanic origins, with writings of the grape dating back to 1435. Growers note that vines in the Americas and Australia grow thicker skins and branches (acclimatization to harsher climates), while those in Europe celebrate the ability to make a myriad of styles; from dry to lusciously sweet.

Pinot Noir

Perhaps the world's most difficult grape to grow, where only the most passionate of winemakers dare to try their hand. Pinot noir is often referred to as the "heartbreak grape" because of its difficult growing conditions and low yields, but is also highly prized by winemakers for its unique flavour and aroma profile. With great quality and scarcity, it is no surprise that Pinot Noirs are so highly regarded today.

Cabernet Sauvignon

The world's most planted grape variety is Cabernet Sauvignon. Grapes of this variety are small, thick-skinned and known for their structure and aging potential. Renowned for its vast flavour potential, deep colour and affinity with French oak barrels, one can see why people across the wine world are drawn to it.

Nebbiolo

Early records of Nebbiolo and the Langhe tell of a sweet, sometimes sparkling wine that has since been lost to time. Wines made from Nebbiolo today stem from the 19th century, when French noblewoman (and later Marquise of Barolo), Giulia Falletti introduced red wines from her estate to the aristocratic circles of Torino. Upon tasting these bold reds, King Carlo Alberto of Savoy filled the streets of Turin with barrels of Barolos. Attention and investment from the royal family flooded the Langhe, some of whose castles still stand today.

Zinfandel

The story of Zinfandel is one of journeys and people. From its origins in Croatia where 'Tribidrag' was favored by Venetian courts in the Mediterranean; to 18th century plantings of 'Primitivo' in Liponti, Italy by priests. Now, 70% of the world's 'Zinfandel' is planted in the United States, where its rich raspberry and plum flavors suit the local palate.

Juyondai Sake

Founded in Edo period 1615 with over 400 years of history in the northern Yamagata Prefecture as the Takagi Shuzo brewery, Juyondai sakes are often rated as the most sought after sakes in the world.

The brewery is highly meticulous in its selection of rice for production; and its success largely associated with a fragrant, fruity aroma and fresh taste, in contrast to majority of spice-forward sakes enjoyed by the Japanese market.
